MEDICINAL.

The book of woman's life is divided into three chapters: Girlhood, womanhood, motherhood. At the time when a young girl passes into womanhood, turning the leaf as we may say between the first and second chapters of her existence—a little care and thoughtfulness will double her chances of future happiness and save many hours of suffering. Every young woman should have an intelligent understanding of her own physical make-up. Half knowledge which is little better than ignorance, opens the way to an untold amount of pain and wretchedness.

Real women realize the influence exerted on their bodily and mental well-being by the special organs of their sex. It is hard for them to believe that the little drain which goes on from day to day is sufficient to sap away the very life forces. Yet it is so. The weakness, exhaustion, melancholy, the periodical prostration and sometimes almost torture has no other cause, two-thirds of the time, than the abnormal unhealthy condition of the generative organs. Strangely enough even doctors who recognize the cause of the trouble, do not know of any other remedy in the world so helpful and certain as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores health and vigor to the feminine functions and renewed vitality to the entire body. It heals inflammation, stops discharges, strengthens the ligaments and builds up the internal tissues which cannot be reached by "local treatment." It is of inestimable value to young women and to prospective mothers, greatly lessening the pains and perils of childbirth if taken during pregnancy. During the "change of life" it is invaluable.

Dr. Pierce's great book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," has 1000 pages, profusely illustrated. Over 60 pages are devoted to woman's diseases with the most complete home treatment. It will be sent free by World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only.

LETTER FROM PAGE.
[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
LURAY, Va., Feb. 18.—Page county is building a new jail, a fire proof one, under contract with Manly & Co., a southern firm, and it will be ready, it is thought, for occupancy by May.

It is a fine looking building with many modern improvements, has steel cages and a mob cell. The cost is some $7,000. Our prisoners in the meantime are confined in the Front Royal jail. We have two murder cases to be disposed but there will not be a trial before the March term.

This district will not lack for candidates for Congress as some five or six persons, it is understood, will seek the nomination. Captain Parks, our representative in the Legislature, is spoken of by his many friends. S. S. Turner, the present member, has already announced himself, and so has Marshall McCormick, of Clarke; Hay, of Madison, is certain to contest for the honor, while Walton, of Shenandoah, has not yet decided whether he will be a candidate or not. Of course each county will be apt to do all it can for its own candidate, and there is apt to be a strong and a vigorous campaign before a decision is reached. No place has yet been selected, nor time fixed for the convention.

Our Circuit Court began its February term on Monday the 17th inst. with Judge T. W. Harrison, of Winchester, presiding.

The Board of Supervisors have offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Willis D. Kibler, who was so brutally murdered in this county last fall. This offer has as yet brought to light no additional facts, nor have there been any arrests. The nephew of the old man, Newton Kibler, arrested a few days after the murder for the crime is still in jail, and there the matter rests. He strongly protests his innocence, and he absolutely knows nothing of the murder save the finding of the body of his uncle, and giving the alarm to the neighbors.

STARVED TO DEATH.—The finding of Hannah Rosenbush, aged 85 years, dead, and her sister Sarah with life almost extinct, in their humble cottage at Rush, N. Y., on Saturday, reveals a story almost incredible. The two sisters had been town charges for some years and had few, if any friends. A neighbor who found them on Saturday says the house was devoid of furniture, and there was no fire in the building and no food. Sarah, who was revived sufficiently to tell of her troubles, said they had had nothing to eat since the supplies from the town officers gave out on Thursday. Hannah had not been well during the winter, and gradually became weaker, and was at last obliged to take to her bed.

On Thursday the women ate the last morsel of food. They retired that night in the hope that some one would visit them the following day and bring food, but none came. The fuel was exhausted, and they turned up all the furniture and then wrapped themselves up in clothing and sat down to await the coming of some one. On Friday night they went to bed, cold and hungry. Not a morsel of food had passed the lips of the women for forty-eight hours. During the night the elder woman died, and when Sarah awoke in the morning she realized that her sister was dead and lay calmly awaiting the same fate when found. Sarah died a few hours later. The coroner has granted a certificate of death from natural causes.

ALMOST MARRIED WITH A COLLAR BUTTON.—A blushing bride, a nervous "best man," and a minister had a thrillingly embarrassing experience at a wedding in a North Broad street church the other night. The best man, who is a clerk in the Reading Railroad freight office, was so overcome by the excitement incident to the wedding march up the aisle of the church that he became partially dazed, and at a most critical moment made a mistake that came very near delaying the ceremony.

The minister had just asked the regulation question, "Do you take," etc., and the time had arrived for the clergyman to place the ring on the bride's finger and instead of pulling the diamond ring from his pocket to hand to the clergyman he pulled out a collar button, which the clergyman attempted to put on the bride's finger.

There were blushes, a momentary spasm and a wild look of despair; then the young best man recovered long enough to find the ring, and the ceremony proceeded. His collar button was returned with thanks.—Philadelphia Record.

Much of life's misery is due to indigestion; for who can be happy with a pain in his stomach? As a corrective and strengthener of the alimentary organs, Ayer's Pills are invaluable, their use being attended with marked benefit.
